

S
T
A

Quality and Environment Policy

SRI TRANG AGRO-INDUSTRY
PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

Quality and Environment Policy

Companies under the group of Sri Trang Agro-Industry Plc have a strong commitment to become one of the country's leading green companies, with an intention in developing the sustainable rubber industry, along with realizing and serving every client demand. Also, it's conscious of an environment responsibility. Then, the company brings the quality management system, QMS/ISO9001, and the environment management system, EMS/ISO14001, to follow, with a commitment to operate as follows:

Green Company

- ❖ To follow clients' criteria, legislation, other regulations and also commitment to be pursued among stakeholders.
- ❖ To improve and develop the quality management system and the environment management system by defining and monitoring continuously its successful output as planned.
- ❖ To develop and increase an efficiency of all employees in every business units in order to raise the company's capacity to grow stably.

Green Factory

- ❖ To pay attention to all processes of product production and other supporting processes under the quality control system in every process in order to produce quality products to serve clients' demand.
- ❖ Essential to have a process, means and measure to manage risks and opportunity, by staying in line with the company's activities, product and service, as well as having an ability to make clients satisfied and achieve objective as planned.
- ❖ To keep focus on conservation about resources usage and energy, as well as preventing the occurrence of water, air and odor pollutions and other impacts to ensure that the plant is environmentally friendly with production process and communities nearby.
- ❖ To prevent, reduce waste and promote the reuse in order to minimize the impact on environment.

Green Product

- ❖ To concentrate on producing rubber, which is the product made from clean nature, without mixed substance which may be dangerous to the downstream industry and the entire cycle of product, which is associated with the safety and health of consumers, as well as being environmentally friendly.

Green Supply

- ❖ To provide knowledge and training about quality and environment to employees, sellers and service providers, as well as existing staff in the operation in order to stimulate consciousness on the quality management system, clients' demand and prevent major problems which will send an impact on environment.
- ❖ To disclose and publicize the quality and environment policy to the company's stakeholders.

Announces on January 3, 2017.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Viyavood Singharoenkul".

---

(DR. Viyavood Singharoenkul)
Chairman and Managing Director